

Please allow XMradio to continue with the local programming it is currently presenting in the Boston Area. Local broadcast radio is of extremely poor quality. Traffic reports are, at best, too dated to be useful and most of the time non-existent. Also, when attempting to get a traffic or weather report, one must subject themselves to mediocre and often times offensive programming being presented by the "over the air" broadcasters.